

PRESIDENT H. H. VREELAND SAYS:

"Clothes don't make the man, but good clothes have got many a good job."

"If you have $25 and want a job it is better to spend $20 for clothes, $4 for shoes and the rest for a shave and hair cut and a clean collar and walk to the place than go with the money in the pockets of a dingy suit."

Mr. Vreeland ought to know what he is talking about. Not many years ago he was shoveling gravel, now he is president of the Metropolitan Traction Co.

Mrs. J. H. Yelverton, jr., wife of the well-known Lemon street furniture dealer, died at her home in this city last Sunday afternoon after a lingering illness, of typhoid fever. Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Cartmel expect to attend the wedding.

Judge J. C. Vertrees returned from a visit of several weeks in Nashville, Tenn., last Tuesday evening, and where he attended the annual meeting of United Confederate Veterans. Judge Vertrees looks hale and hearty and as if he had enjoyed every moment of his visit.

Congressman Rob't. W. Davis is at home and busy practicing law at the old stand. It would defy the best judges of human nature, if strangers to the situation, to detect from his bearing that he was other than the successful candidate for governor.

The Gem City Guards held their monthly competitive drill for the medal on Tuesday evening. After a long and spirited drill, Sergeant Ralph Rankin alone remained perfect and was awarded the medal. Attorney Harold E. Merryday was unanimously elected company secretary.

The Cummer Lumber Company of Jacksonville has purchased 25,000 acres of timber land on the east side of the river mostly in St. Johns county and south of East Palatka. The purchase embraces two turpentine properties. The report that the company contemplates the erection of a large mill at East Palatka is probably without foundation, as the it owns immense milling plants at Jacksonville.

Capt. J. E. Lucas has purchased the steamer Lavinia of G. D. Jackson, and as soon as the boat can be put in repair will place her on the Palatka and Drayton Island route. Last winter Capt. The Palatka base ball team went to Starke last Friday and played a match game with the team at that place. If you would learn the result of the contest from a Palatka standpoint any member of the local team will gladly give it on application. The Starke team tell a story of broken jaws and spiked feet, and an umpire, who through it all never forgot that he was a gentleman. The members of the local team returned home without physical disfigurement, do not question the umpire's right to be called a gentleman, but insist that he should enter upon a course of kindergarten instruction in base ball rules. The umpire was a Starke man. When the Palatka team quit the field in the ninth inning over a partition decision the score stood 5 to 4 in favor of the Palatka club. The manner of their quitting gave the game to Starke by a score of 9 to 0.

F. W. Gano, a highly esteemed citizen of Interlachen, died at his home last Saturday morning, aged 62 years and 10 days. The funeral obsequies were conducted from the home by Rev. J. Winslow Saturday afternoon, and the interment was in the Interlachen cemetery. Mr. Gano was a native of Ohio and a Federal veteran of the civil war. He was twice married, and was the father of 14 children, nine of whom are now living. He was a devoted Christian and for nearly 40 years a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, and at Interlachen, where he has resided for the past two years, he was active in the work of the church and Sunday school. Mrs. Gano and daughter, Miss Gertrude, desire to express their appreciation and thanks to those friends who so kindly assisted during the dark hours of sickness and death of their beloved husband and father.

Hog Killing at Interlachen. L. P. Lae a leading citizen of Interlachen was given a preliminary hearing before Judge Cox on Monday on the charge of unlawfully killing hogs. The principal witness for the prosecution was Justice J. I. Wimberly, who stated that he heard shots in the direction of Mr. Lae's residence, and that afterwards, attracted by the buzzards, 28 dead hogs were found on the Lae premises, and their bodies hacked to pieces. Some 15 or 16 of the dead hogs belonged to the late F. W. Gano, who died last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tilghman have reason to feel pride in their new pleasure craft for it is the acme of comfort in all its appointments.

The Summer Training School.

The Summer Training school for teachers which is to open in the high school building on the 11th inst., and of which notice was given exclusively in this paper last week, will afford a grand opportunity for advancement on the part of the young people in the county already engaged in teaching as well as those who are ambitious to enter that profession.

Since the publication last week of the names of the teachers engaged to conduct the school it is learned that Miss Carrie M. Green, who is on her vacation in the north, has written that she could not accept the place, and Prof. F. A. Hathaway has been appointed as substitute. The faculty of the school will consist of Prof. J. I. Hines, principal, Profs. Hathaway, and Gieger, and Miss Maude Schwalmeyer, assistants.

Prof. Wm. N. Sheets, state superintendent of public instruction, has published the following regarding the school:

"Purpose—The object of these schools is not merely to prepare teachers for examination, but their chief aim is to inspire teachers with a true educational spirit and to instruct them in pedagogical principles and methods of instruction."

"Course of Study—Much latitude is given instructors in adapting their work to the needs of the teachers; the syllabus published in 1899 will be furnished each school, and may be used as a guide in so far as it meets present necessities."

"Books—Few, if any, new books need be purchased. Teachers will take such books as they now have."

"Attendance—Only teachers and persons preparing to teach over sixteen years of age will be admitted, as these schools are run with the one view of bettering the teaching force of the state."

"Transportation—A receipt must be taken from the agent at the starting point for full fare on going. The principal of each school may, by making proper application, receive reduced rates on returning fare at the close of the school."

"Board—The local authorities at each place have promised to secure sufficient boarding places at the lowest obtainable rates."

"Co-operation—School officers are expected to encourage in every possible way their teachers to attend these schools. No school will be continued at any place, if a great majority of the county schools are opened before the close of the teachers' summer school."

"Examinations—The privilege of an examination for primary and state certificates will be given on August 31, at the school held at Palatka, or at any one of the schools where there are as many as five examinees. "More definite information may be secured by addressing the superintendent of the county in which each school is located, or by addressing the principal."

In discussing the school the other day County Superintendent L. K. Tucker, said:

"I would like to urge upon the teachers of this county the importance and the necessity of attending the summer training school. We seldom have an opportunity like this, and should not let it go by without taking in its advantages. The length of the term will depend largely on the attendance and it is to be hoped that the teachers of Putnam county will show their appreciation by giving the school a good attendance on the very first day. Arrangements have been made to get good board for all who wish to attend at $14 to $16 per month. Those wishing to get rooms furnished, and do light house-keeping, can do so on very reasonable terms. I shall be pleased to aid any one who may wish to secure board. I will cheerfully give information to any one, regarding this school, who will call on or write me."

S. E. Bond Co.'s Stock Sold.

The stock of the S. E. Bond Co. has been sold to A. W. Strange who will conduct the business in future. The deal was closed this week by an agreement among the creditors of the S. E. Bond Co., on one side and attorney of Mrs. S. E. Bond on the other. Through this arrangement there will be no assignment or bankruptcy proceedings. Mrs. Bond is to get her legal exemption of $1,000 and the balance from the sale of the stock will go to the creditors.

It is stated that the company owed $7,000 and that the stock is worth about $3,000, though the latter amount is questioned by some. The principal creditor is Teft, Weller & Co. of New York, whose claim is about $4,000.

Seven years ago, on the death of S. E. Bond, this business was considered one of the most substantial concerns in Palatka. Its collapse is said to be due to bad management. A. W. Strange the new proprietor is well-known in Palatka, where he resided up to a little more than a year ago, when he went to Knights, in Hillsboro county, to look after his orange grove interests. He is best remembered in business circles for his long connection with the late I. M. Meyer. Mr. Strange will endeavor to build up his business on a substantial basis, and those who know him best are predicting his certain success.

Wm. H. Edgar, promoter and developer of the kaolin mines at Edgar, this county, is dead at his old home Meluehen, N. J.
